Nov 2002-nov 2004

Danske Bank, Sweden Branch

Managing Director of Danske Bank, Sweden Branch.

Senior Executive Vice President, Danske Bank A/S and associate member of the Executive Committee of Danske Bank A/S.

Danske Bank, Sweden branch, consists of a number of local brand named branches, such as Bohusbanken, Sundsvallsbanken, Östgöta Enskilda Bank, etc. There are over 1,200 people employed in Sweden.

After having been within the trading financial markets-area for 18 years, I took the challenge to lead Danske Bank in its pursuit to grow its overall banking business in Sweden. During this time I also sat on a number of company boards, listed below.

In October 2004, Danske Bank wanted to make the bank more centrally controlled, so I decided to leave.

1998-nov 2002

Danske Bank, Sweden Branch

General Manager Danske Markets, Sweden (incl. Consensus) and Executive vice president, Danske Bank A/S.

Late 1997, Danske Bank A/S acquired Östgöta Enskilda Bank with all its subsidiaries. I was made responsible for all FX- and Fixed Income trading in the Swedish market. Since we now were a part of the second largest bank in the Nordic region, we started to grow our business into areas such as IRS and Repos. Danske Markets and Consensus is still ranked as number one by both the Riksbank and the Prospera Survey.

1991-1998
